The Eastern intem-case brought to us last evening by H. M. S. Devastation is up to the 6th inst. Full details are given of the recent attack on Petersburg, after the explosion of the Confederate redan. The attack, it would seem, was badly managed, the troops becoming demoralized when almost in possession of the coveted heights which command the city The old fear of the "mine," which has been the most fertile creator of panies, had its effect on the colored troops, who were in the advance, and back they came pell-mell, driving everything into confusion. At this juncture, the Confederates poured in a destructive fire, and the Federals were obliged to relinquish the position they had obtained, having lost in the attack 2 500 men. The Southern troops acknowledge a loss of 3,000, caused principally by the explosion and the dreadful fire which immediately followed from the 120 Federal guns.
From Sherman's command there is intelligence of a serious disaster which happened the raiding party under General McCook. After destroying about eighteen miles of the Macon railway, and otherwise doing considerable damage to Hood's communications McCook was actacked by a superior force under the Confederate General Ransom, and lost a large portion of his command. Rumors were current that reinforcements had reached Atlanta from Beauregard's army and from Mobile, which, if true, may retard Shefman's progress very materially. Hood, however if we may judge of his recent fighting, is not disposed to value his men very highly, and it is just possible that his rashness will more than counterbalance the gain of obtaining reinforcements. His recent losses, if the despatches are anything near the mark, have been extravagantly severe. The forwarding of troops from Mobile to Atlanta may probably precipitate the long talked of Federal attack on the former city—the number of Confederate troops within its limits now being but two brigades. From the Shenandonh and along the Pennsylvania and Maryland borders, the accounts from the raiders show that they are still in numbers large enough to harrass their Northern enemy. Some engagements had been won by one side, and offset by victories on another; but it is evident that the Southern troops will manage to get the harvest of the Shenandoah valley. There is but little fresh news from Grant's army beyond the report of Meude being superseded. On the who c, the intelligence rather favors the South, and would indicate that some important and fresh combinations are in course of operation of

TRAGEDY AT SOOKE.

DEATH OF MR. C. J. HUGHES, J.P.

It is with feelings of extreme pain that we have to record the death of Charles James Hughes, Esq., the recently appointed Magistrate for Sooke District. Mr. Hughes breathed his last at Eberhardt's Hotel, Langley street, at about 10 minutes to 10 last night. The circumstances connected with this melancholy event may be briefly stated

FROM SAN FRANCISCO.—H.B.M. Devastation, having on board Admiral the Hon, J. Denman, and Mrs. Denman, arrived from San Francisco last night at 7 o'clock, bringing an express and a mail. The latter will be delivered to-day, at 8 a.m. She left on the 6th inst.

For Shanghai —The bark Panama, Captain Johnson, sailed for Shanghai yesterday afternoon, at 6 o'clock, with three passengers, and 200,000 feet of lumber. A son of Mr. J. T. Little's goes on her to China.

The Steamer Emily Harris arrived from Nanaimo yesterday afternoon, with a cargo of coal for R. Brodrick.

For Alberni.—The steamer Thames sailed yesterday afternoon for Alberni, with mill hands, and a quantity of freight.

It would appear that he then left Messrs. Elliott & Co's store unobserved, and proceeded about 300 yards on a trail which leads from Thompson's landing to Muir's mill, and nothing more was knewn until he was discovered lying bleeding on the ground by Mr. F-ley and another man named Hugines, who happened to be passing. Mr. Hughes was then alive and partly conscious, his pistol, with all the barrels discharged, was lying noar him; also some private papers Assistance was immediately obtained, and the suffere was removed on a stretcher to Thompson's, where an examination was made by Dr. Hall, a medical gentleman who happened to be there, and he discovered a fearful and mortal bullet wound about 34 of an inch wide in the left breast. Three bulls had apparently entered just under the region.

He was a native of Montgomeryshire, Wales, but his family resided at Ladlow, in Shropshire, and Mr. Hughes spent several years in California before he visited this city. We understand that he was a single man, about 44 years of age.

ACCIDENTS IN COMING OVER THE TRAIL.

Several accidents have happened to miners in coming over the trail, one of which, and probably the most serious, happened to more of unparty, named Wm. Williams, a drayman. The reported surface diggings near Bear iver, had fizzled out, but resulted in the dismines upon the return of Governor Seymout from Caribbo, with a view to ascertain the a creek about 10 miles from Antler and 14 from Williams Creek. They sunk a shaft about 40 feet, and struck very good diggings. They kept the matter quiet, but were aston-ished shortly afterwards to find them-elves Harris brought down fourteen passengers last night, all bound for Sooke. Great excitement existed in Coal-dom, and a "strke" had takes place among the miners for higher wages.

CARIBOO LETTER

FROM AN OCCUASIONAL CORRESPONDENT.

WILLIAMS CRERK, B. C. July 30th, 1864. Editor Colonist :- You appear to have so EDITOR COLONIST: —You appear to have so many able correspondents in this part of the world, that it seems almost superfluous to send you a letter from Cariboo; still as the property of your city is so intimately connected with the success or non-success of the mining districts, a word or two of encouragement now and then may not prove unwelcome.

First of all is to the actual yield of gold on bad not the wherewith to satisfy the cravings Williams Creek. The daily average amount taken out at present is, as nearly as possible, discuss it is somewhat difficult carrive at any exact estimates as the fluctuations in the yield of the several claims are often very considerable, but from several distely flew to arms and so frightened that amount may be depended on as being rather poor animal that it rushed into a narrow gorge, where ascape was next to impossible, under than over the actual value taken out of and was deepatched with a pick and a shorel.

merged will be freed from water, and in fact the contractors are expecting every minute to top the guiterranean lake successfully. This will bring seperal very rich claims into vigorous work again, so that we may confidently look for the average yield to be increased to $33,000 per day, or one million dollars for the mount of August, as the result of this creak alone and possibly a million and a quarter for September.

Lowhee Creek Is now giving about three hundred ounces a day and will increase this figure to five or perhaps six hundred ounces in two weeks' time, so that the total amount taken out of the two creeks will swell up to a very respectable sum before the close of the season. The Last Excitement.

The Last Excitement.

There has been a great deal of excitement lately about the alleged discovery of new creeks, and hundreds of men have gone off in every direction with a very confused idea of where they are going. Two thirds of them will probably be lost in the woods and come back with long faces and a grievous tale about having been humbugged; the other third may possibly find that there is some foundation for the reports; but in any event the country will be thoroughly prospected and the probabilities are that new discoveries will be made this season.
